Hymn: The Lord's My Shepherd

The Lord's my shepherd, I'll not want
He makes me down to lie
In pastures green, he leadeth me
The quiet waters by.

My soul he doth restore again
And me to walk doth make
Within the paths of righteousness
E'en for his own name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through death's dark vale
Yet will I fear no ill,
For thou art with me, and thy rod
And staff me comfort still.

My table thou hast furnished
In presence of my foes,
My head thou dost with oil anoint
And my cup overflows.

Goodness and mercy all my life
Shall surely follow me,
And in God's house for evermore
My dwelling place shall be.

Eulogy

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name.
Thy Kingdom come,
Thy will be done,
On earth as it is in heaven
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
The power and the glory,
For ever and ever.
Amen

Watching Them Grow

This time of year,
When the sky is a blink of promise,
You can sit in the garden
And watch the birds busying.
Robins, finches, blue tits,
Their little lives perched on the brink of tomorrow.
When I get out of here
I'm going to plant a clematis outside this window
So the next patient can watch the spring
Burst into being through the glass.
When I first arrived, the branches were waiting to bud.
Now look at them - green as the very heart of growth.
Time heals. Time takes root. Time brings home.

Trevor was presented with this poem by a visitor who had spent time with him at South Bristol Community Hospital following his first major stroke.

Thank you all for attending today's service and for your support at this sad time.

You are invited to join the family afterwards for refreshments and to continue sharing memories of Trevor at
